

A black and white portrait of Noel Pearson, a man with grey hair, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and patterned tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a neutral expression. The background is dark and out of focus.

NOEL PEARSON

EIDOS INSTITUTE BREAKFAST SERIES

The Eidos Institute Breakfast Series is one of Australia's foremost forums for public and private researchers and policymakers in human capital and education to discuss social and economic trends and challenges that are critical to the success of their organisations now and in the future. The series attracts speakers of national and international standing, sharing their insights and experiences as educational and social leaders. Noel Pearson has devoted his life to the creation and development of Cape York Land Council and other Indigenous organisations. Noel was part of the indigenous negotiating team during the drafting of the Native Title Act in 1993. More information is available on the Eidos website www.eidos.org.au