

THE NEW ARCHITECTURE OF GOVERNMENT AND POLICY-MAKING IN QUEENSLAND

PRESENTING PARTNER

LAING O'ROURKE

ON JUNE 12 2009, THE EIDOS INSTITUTE BOARD WILL BE HOSTING A BREAKFAST WITH KEN SMITH, DIRECTOR-GENERAL, QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT OF THE PREMIER AND CABINET

In his first public presentation on the new architecture of the Queensland Government, Ken Smith will outline and Q&A the Queensland Public Service's new vision for greater integration and effectiveness of service delivery. The most significant public sector reform in almost two decades, creating six clusters, will be of interest to leaders in government, business and higher education.

www.eidos.org.au

Details Friday, 12 June at 7.00am for 7.30am Start - 9.00am

Cost $66 per ticket, or $550 for table of 10

Where Sofitel Brisbane, 249 Turbot Street, Brisbane City

Bookings before Wednesday, 10 June by visiting eidos.org.au

EVENT SPONSOR

accenture
High performance. Delivered.

